

Your new Featherlite comes with a trailer warranty that's among the best in the industry and reflects Featherlite's continuing advances in quality control and assurance.

10-Year Warranty on 2013s & newer models

You get additional confidence and security with Featherlite's 10-year limited structural warranty* now available on 2013 and newer model year Featherlite trailers. For a period of 10 years from the date of purchase, when properly maintained and used in normal consumer use, the main frame and super structure of the trailer, consisting of the bottom rail, floor crossmembers, side posts, roof rail extrusions, king pin and sub frame of the trailer, will be free from defective materials and/or workmanship. 10-year warranty does not apply to floors, floor boards, running gear or axles. For a period of one year from date of purchase, when properly maintained and used in normal consumer use, all other parts of the trailer manufactured and installed by Featherlite will be free from defective materials and/or workmanship. All component parts manufactured or supplied by a vendor to Featherlite, such as axles, jacks, floors or any other materials, are warranted for one year except where the original equipment manufacturer's warranty for such component is greater than one year, in which case the vendor warranty shall apply. 10-year warranty not applicable on select commercial trailers.

Transferable Warranty

Featherlites have long been famous for holding their value better and longer. But now with Featherlite's transferable warranty, your investment is even smarter and more secure. Find your nearest dealer, and contact them for more information on Featherlite's extraordinary trailer warranty.

8-Year Warranty on 2008s-2012s

With 2008 and newer models up to and including 2012 models, Featherlite owners receive an 8-year limited structural warranty. For a period of 8 years from the date of purchase, when properly maintained and used in normal consumer use, the main frame and super structure of the trailer, consisting of the bottom rail, floor crossmembers, side posts, roof rail extrusions, king pin and sub frame of the trailer, will be free from defective materials and/or workmanship. 8-year warranty does not apply to floors, floor boards, running gear or axles. For a period of one year from date of purchase, when properly maintained and used in normal consumer use, all other parts of the trailer manufactured and installed by Featherlite will be free from defective materials and/or workmanship. All component parts manufactured or supplied by a vendor to Featherlite, such as axles, jacks, floors or any other materials, are warranted for one year except where the original equipment manufacturer's warranty for such component is greater than one year, in which case the vendor warranty shall apply. 8-year warranty not applicable on select commercial trailers.

Horse Trailer Rubber Mats

Starting with 2012 models, North West Rubber, provider of Featherlite horse trailer mats, warrants each mat to be free of defective materials and workmanship and agrees to replace mats which under normal wear disclose such defect. This is a lifetime warranty given to the original purchaser. North West Rubber shall not be responsible for any loss, inconvenience, or consequential damage caused by product. This warranty is in lieu of any other warranty, obligation or liability expressed or implied, including any warranty of merchantability or fitness for a particular purpose other than trailer floor mats. Manufacturers will not accept responsibility for more than product replacement.

The 10-year warranty applies to 2013 and newer aluminum, non-commercial trailers sold on or after February 1, 2012. Contact your Featherlite dealer for specific details.*

Effective April 1, 2009, transferable warranty is available only on a trailer with remaining warranty that is traded in for a new Featherlite trailer at an authorized Featherlite dealer and resold by the authorized Featherlite dealer. See dealer for details.*

The 8-year warranty applies to 2008, 2009, 2010, 2011 and 2012 aluminum, non-commercial trailers sold on or after January 16, 2008. Contact your Featherlite dealer for specific details.
